

Financing Your Undergraduate Studies at the Daniels Faculty

Congratulations on your admission to a Daniels Faculty of Architecture, Landscape, and Design undergraduate program!

Students in undergraduate programs at the Daniels Faculty fund their educational expenses through a variety of programs including savings and family resources, government student loans, student lines of credit and employment income. Students are also eligible for awards given out by Daniels and the University of Toronto. More information about these different sources of funding are detailed below.

BUDGETING

No matter your finances, take the time to plan out all your expenses and set a budget before the start of the academic year to ensure you have adequate funding available for the upcoming year. For help with budgeting, view the Financial Planning Calculator at <https://planningcalc.utoronto.ca/financialPlanner/#/>.

SAVINGS, FAMILY RESOURCES

- If working during the summer, plan to save as much as possible.
- Discuss with parents, partners and other family members about resources that they may be able to provide.

AWARDS, SCHOLARSHIPS AND BURSARIES/GRANTS

Daniels Awards

The Daniels Faculty offers admission awards to incoming students, and in-course and graduating awards to current students.

- Eligibility criteria are specific to each award, and may include academic merit, financial need, leadership and community involvement, and citizenship and residency requirements.
- For most awards, students are automatically considered.
- For awards which require applications, students will be sent a message to their utoronto.ca address regarding application instructions and deadlines.
- A list of Daniels undergraduate awards is available on the Daniels website.

University of Toronto Awards

Daniels Faculty students are also eligible to receive awards from the University of Toronto. Most awards are by application. To search for UT awards, view:

- University of Toronto Enrolment Services - <http://future.utoronto.ca/finances/scholarships>
- University of Toronto Student Life - <https://www.ulife.utoronto.ca/opportunities/list>

GOVERNMENT STUDENT ASSISTANCE

- Combination of loans and non-repayable grants
- Loans
 - Interest-free while in full-time studies
 - Must be re-paid when no longer in full-time studies
- Canadian citizens and permanent residents eligible to apply
 - Canadian citizens and permanent residents currently not living in Canada prior to starting studies at Daniels are also eligible to apply. Proof of citizenship/permanent residency and history of past addresses will be required.
- Must be in at least 60% of a full-time course load (1.5 credits or more per term)
 - Students with disabilities – eligible for Full-Time government student assistance at 40% of a full-time course load (1.0 credits per term)

For Ontario Residents – OSAP

<http://future.utoronto.ca/finances/financial-aid/osap-and-other-government-aid>
