

Graduate Welcome Events Thurs. Sept. 5 – Fri. Sept. 6, 2019 1 Spadina Crescent, Toronto, ON, M5S 2J5

Thursday September 5

12 – 2 pm

New Daniels Students- Welcome & Lunch
Room 200

- Meet the MArch, MLA, MUD, and MVS program directors!
- GALDSU Introduction

2:30pm –
4:30pm

Radical Incrementalism

Walking Tour of the city of Toronto with Professor Mark Sterling.
Meet Professor Sterling in front of the “Toronto” sign at Nathan Phillips Square (City Hall, 100 Queen St. W) at 2:30pm

“Just beyond the edges of the campus are some of the most rapidly developing city districts in North America, part of the “City of Towers” that Toronto is rapidly becoming”. Explore the city through the eyes of Mark Sterling, Director, Master of Urban Design program.

The tour will depart following the new student program welcome sessions.

*Please wear comfortable walking shoes and bring a refillable water bottle.

Friday September 6

9:30am –
10:30am

Tour of the Daniels Building and meet Daniels staff!

Visits will include meeting staff in the:

- Workshop area
- Fabrication area

- Writing Centre
- Library
- IT office

10:30 am-
11:00am

Grad Student Financial Fundamentals

Room 200

Join Jiffin Arboleda, Assistant Registrar to learn about the financial resources available to you.

11:00am- 11:30am

IT Help: Getting Started at Daniels

Room 200

Find out about IT resources and how to get set up.

11:30am-
12:00pm

International Graduate Student Resources

Room 200

Are you an international student with questions about the resources or supports you can expect as a Graduate Student? Join Yaseen Ali from the Centre for International Experience!

12:00pm – 2:00
pm

All Daniels Students-

Daniels Resource Fair

1st Floor, 1 Spadina Crescent

- As you begin a new academic year take some time to discover the amazing resources available to you as a Daniels student
- Includes: student groups & clubs, support services including IT, printing, Daniels Writing Centre, Financial Resources, and more!

2:30 – 5:30pm

Lower Yonge and the Waterfront Walking Tour

Walking tour of the city of Toronto with Professor Mark Sterling.

Meet Mark at 2:30 at the streetcar stop at Queen Street East and River Street on routes 301 or 501.

“Toronto’s waterfront is the locus of several emerging comprehensively planned mixed use neighbourhoods including the Canary District (the Pan Am Games athletes’ village) The East Bay Front, Lower Yonge District Harbourfront, The South Core and City Place.” Explore the city through the eyes of Mark Sterling, Director, Master of Urban Design program.

*Please wear comfortable walking shoes and bring a refillable water bottle. Looking for more? Join us for mini information sessions about topics that matter to students. In these sessions helpful information, tips, and resources will be share

